Economic Injury Disaster Small Business Loan Program

Small business owners in the following designated states are currently eligible to apply for a low-interest loan due to Coronavirus (COVID-19):

Georgia is a designated state.

The SBA will work directly with state Governors to provide targeted, low-interest loans to small businesses and non-profits that have been severely impacted by the Coronavirus (COVID-19).

The SBA’s Economic Injury Disaster Loan program provides small businesses with working capital loans of up to $2 million that can provide vital economic support to small businesses to help overcome the temporary loss of revenue they are experiencing. (Next page provides additional details.)

SBA Emergency Loans

Georgia is among the first states authorized to apply for these loans.
Details on Economic Injury Disaster Small Business Loan Program

Economic Injury Disaster Loans: EIDLs offer up to $2 million in assistance, which can be used to help overcome temporary loss in revenue caused by COVID-19.

- The loans may be used to pay fixed debts, payroll, accounts payable and other bills that can’t be paid due to this disaster. The interest rate for a small business is 3.75% and 2.75% for non-profits. The term of an SBA loan is up to 30 years, and these terms are determined on a case-by-case basis.

- It takes an average of 2 weeks to apply and get approved for the loan, plus 5 days for closing and first payment. Once approved, EIDL recipients can defer payment on the loan for up to 12 months. The CARES Act eliminates creditworthiness requirements and appropriates an additional $10 billion to the EIDL program in order to extend to eligible non-profits.

Economic Injury Disaster Small Business Loan Program

Georgia applicants are encouraged to apply for a disaster loan at www.sba.gov/disaster

• The documents necessary to apply for a loan include:

1. The SBA Business Disaster Loan Application
2. Your business’s most recent year’s tax return
3. An executed IRS Form 4506-T (which gives SBA the authority to collect tax transcripts from the IRS)
4. Personal financial statements and schedule of liabilities

• Once a business applies, they’ll be assigned an SBA counselor that can assist them with any questions they may have.

• Once a business is approved, they are permitted to defer payments on that loan for up to 12 months. Small businesses can address their application needs/concerns on SBA’s website. However, if a small business doesn’t have internet access, SBA district offices can assist with providing paper copies of applications.—Contact @ 470.891.5576
SBA Debt Relief

The SBA Debt Relief program will provide a reprieve to small businesses as they overcome the challenges created by this health crisis.

Under this program:

- The SBA will also pay the principal and interest of new 7(a) loans issued prior to September 27, 2020.
- The SBA will pay the principal and interest of current 7(a) loans for a period of six months.
Express Bridge Loan Pilot Program allows small businesses who currently have a business relationship with an SBA Express Lender to access up to $25,000 with less paperwork. These loans can provide vital economic support to small businesses to help overcome the temporary loss of revenue they are experiencing and can be used to bridge the gap while applying for a direct SBA Economic Injury Disaster loan.

If a small business has an urgent need for cash while waiting for decision and disbursement on Economic Injury Disaster Loan, they may qualify for an SBA Express Disaster Bridge Loan.

Terms:

- Up to $25,000
- Fast turnaround
- Will be repaid in full or in part by proceeds from the EIDL loan

The Paycheck Protection Program is a loan designed to provide a direct incentive for small businesses to keep their workers on the payroll.

SBA will forgive loans if all employees are kept on the payroll for eight weeks and the money is used for payroll, rent, mortgage interest, or utilities.

The Paycheck Protection Program will be available through June 30, 2020.

Do I Qualify?

This program is for any small business with less than 500 employees (including sole proprietorships, independent contractors and self-employed persons), private non-profit organization or 501(c)(19) veterans organizations affected by coronavirus/COVID-19.

Businesses in certain industries may have more than 500 employees if they meet the SBA’s size standards for those industries.

Small businesses in the hospitality and food industry with more than one location could also be eligible at the store and location level if the store employs less than 500 workers. This means each store location could be eligible.

How do I apply:

You can apply through any existing SBA 7(a) lender or through any federally insured depository institution, federally insured credit union, and Farm Credit System institution that is participating. Other regulated lenders will be available to make these loans once they are approved and enrolled in the program. You should consult with your local lender as to whether it is participating in the program.

Lenders may begin processing loan applications as soon as April 3, 2020.
The CARES Act, Relief and Economic Security Act, CARES Act for Small Businesses

The CARES Act tasks the Small Business Administration with overseeing the distribution of millions of dollars in loans and grants to help small businesses survive the pandemic. It also provides additional funding for SBA’s Resource Partners to provide advice and training to help small businesses respond to the unprecedented challenges in communities throughout the country.
